

YAK COMMUNICATIONS PARTNERS WITH INGLE INTERNATIONAL TO PROVIDE EXCLUSIVE SAVINGS ON INSURANCE PRODUCTS

TORONTO, ON – March 23, 2009 – Yak Communications (Canada) Corp, a telecommunications company owned by Globalive Communications Corp., has partnered with Ingle International to offer Yak's customers exclusive savings on a variety of services including home, auto, travel, life and health insurance.

"We're very happy to be providing our customers with another great way to save," said Nisha Amin, Director of Marketing, Globalive. "Not only will our partnership with Ingle provide the opportunity for an incredible deal on their insurance needs, it will also make it that much easier for our customers to get protection for themselves and their loved ones."

By shopping the market to find the lowest possible prices and best coverage available, Ingle is able to offer a wide range of choice to help their customers find the best solution for any given situation. Yak customers will now have the opportunity to enjoy great value and competitive rates for all their unique individual insurance needs from a company that is well respected for offering great value, competitive rates, and excellent customer service.

"Ingle works with major insurers in Canada and internationally in order to deliver the absolute best products available to our customers," said Robin Ingle, Chairman and CEO. "We are incredibly pleased to be able to partner with Yak to offer their customers our exceptional product and service offering at such great rates."
